The Middleby Corporation Acquires Concordia Coffee Company, Inc.

ELGIN, Ill. (Business Wire) – September 8, 2014 -- The Middleby Corporation (NASDAQ: MIDD) today announced the acquisition of Concordia Coffee Company, Inc. ("Concordia"), a leading manufacturer of automated and self-service coffee and espresso machines serving the commercial foodservice industry. Concordia has a highly innovative lineup of products that serve the needs of a wide array of convenience store, hotel, restaurant chain, and institutional customers. The company is located in Seattle and has approximately $15 million in annual revenues.

"The acquisition of Concordia expands and complements Middleby's growing portfolio of brands and innovative equipment solutions serving the beverage category," said Selim A. Bassoul, Chairman and CEO of The Middleby Corporation. "Coffee is an important and profitable category for many of our customers. Concordia has a rich history of innovation, technology, and passion for great coffee. The fully automated espresso machines of Concordia provide for thousands of beverage combinations that are served with consistency and speed, while at the same time providing for the highest beverage quality. Concordia's newest product innovation due to launch in the upcoming months, the Ascent, offers an on-demand brewed coffee one cup at a time with first cup freshness every time and zero waste. We are excited to offer these innovative solutions to a broadened Middleby customer base and anticipate we will realize significant sales growth at the Concordia business through leveraging Middleby's existing global sales and service infrastructure."
