Middleby Marshall® Service Bulletin

SUBJECT

Introduction of Middleby Marshall Technical Service Manual, P/N 47829

GENERAL

You will shortly be receiving one copy of the new Middleby Marshall Technical Service Manual. This manual includes current technical information on the following domestic and standard export Middleby oven models:

- PS200-series, including PS200R68 and PS200VL
- PS360-series, including PS310, PS314, PS360WB, PS360WB70 and PS360EWB
- PS555/570-series, including all variations

This manual does NOT include information on PS536 oven models. These ovens will be covered in a separate document in the future.

This manual does NOT include information on CE-approved oven models for European export. Middleby plans to produce a CE-specific Technical Manual in the future.

This manual replaces the previous PS200/360 Technical Manual, P/N 88210-0019, in all respects. P/N 88210-0019 is no longer available.

AVAILABILITY

The Technical Service Manual is available in three versions. Please note that P/N 47829, the “content-only” version, is the version available free of charge to our Authorized Service Agencies.

For those who would like the manual inserted into a binder, P/Ns 47829-1 and 47829-2 are available and are identical except for pricing. P/N 47829-2 has a reduced cost for use by our Authorized Service Agencies. For all regular sales to customers, use P/N 47829-1.

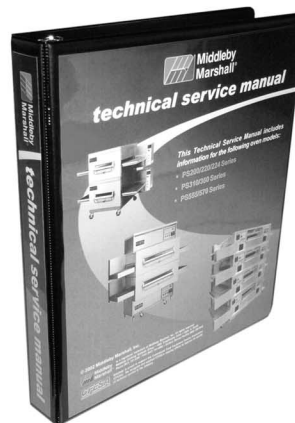

The manual can also be downloaded free of charge from the Middleby website, www.middleby.com.
